Hank Cook

1946 - Frank Burke, G
(3rd Team AP "Little" All-America)

New Mexico native Frank Burke came to NMSU from Portales, N.M., in 1941. He took time off to serve in WWII, and then returned to NMSU in 1946. He earned All-Border Conference honors as a guard and was named Greatest Aggie during his time at NMSU. Burke also served as the team's punter and place kicker. He graduated from NMSU in 1949.

1947 - Raymond Van Pelt, T
(2nd Team AP "Little" All-America)

Van Pelt was born in Clayton, N.M. After receiving many honors in high school, Van Pelt attended NMSU where he played football for four years and was selected as Greatest Aggie in 1948. He graduated in 1949 with a bachelor's of science degree. He went on to coach at Las Cruces High School. He later served as Mayfield's first assistant principal and athletic director in 1965. He retired in 1985 as the principal at Mayfield High school. He was inducted into the Las Cruces Sports Hall of Fame in 1988.

1960 - Pervis Atkins, HB
(1st Team AP)

Atkins let his 9.7-second 100 - yard dash lead the way to his success at New Mexico State. Atkins was an Associated Press first team All-American in 1960, and a four year veteran pro football player. Atkins led the collegiate ranks in 1959 in rushing (971 yards), as well as in scoring (107 points), and punt returns (15.1 yards). Atkins was inducted into the Las Cruces Hall of Fame in 1988.

1969 - Manny Rodriguez, T
(3rd Team Central Press)

Offensive lineman, Manny Rodriguez was a four-year starter for New Mexico State, helping all-American Ron "Po" James put his name in the Aggie rushing record books. Rodriguez was named third team Central Press all-American. A native of Odessa, Texas, Rodriguez's blocking put Ron "Po" James second in the NMSU record books for career rushing attempts, career rushing yardage and career rushing touchdowns, and third in single-season rushing attempts, single-season rushing yardage, single-season rushing yards per game.

1973 - Hank Cook, E
(3rd Team AP)

Former Aggie wide receiver Hank Cook came to NMSU in the spring of 1972. Cook had a number of obstacles in his way, but being blind in one eye was not one of them. He was a participant in the 1973 Blue and Gray football classic sponsored by the Lions club. The proceeds went to many of the Lion's charitable causes such as sight conservation. During his time at NMSU, Cook earned second-team all-American honors after catching 41 passes for 611 yards. The 41 receptions ranked him third among all-time NMSU single-season pass-catchers in 1972.

1974 & 75 - Carl Dean, G
(3rd Team AP)

Carl "The Hit Man" Dean came to New Mexico State all the way from Dayton, Ohio. He was considered to be among the four or five best offensive guards during his time at NMSU. During his sophomore and junior years, Dean led the team with his amazing blocking. In 1974 and '75 NMSU scored 18 touchdowns over his position, he was named third-team all-American by the Associated Press.

1992 - Todd Cutler, TE
(2nd Team Football News)

Cutler is one of the best pass catching tight ends in NMSU history, leading the team in receiving in 1991 with 44 receptions for 718 yards. In 1992, Culter was named second team all-American by the football News after an outstanding senior season, as Culter caught 24 passes for 309 yards. He was also a two-time Academic All-America selection in 1991 and 1992.

2005 - Jimmy Cottrell, LB
(Honorable Mention Sports Illustrated)

Cottrell had a fantastic career for the Aggies, leading the nation in total tackles with 179 in 2005, the most by an Aggie defensive player in a single season. Cottrell left NMSU ranked third all-time in total tackles with 463 and is the only Aggie in school history to lead the team in tackles for four consecutive seasons. In 2005 he was named honorable mention all-American by Sports Illustrated.

2006 - Chris Williams
(Honorable Mention Sports Illustrated)

Chris became the ninth player in school history to earn all-America honors as he was named to the SI.com All-America Honorable Mention team. Williams led the nation in receiving yards per game (117.9) and catches per game (7.66). His 1,861 all-purpose yards also ranked fourth in the nation. He was also the only Aggie to be named first team All-WAC. Williams led the Aggie receiving corps with school records for receptions in a season (92) and receiving yards in a season (1,425). Williams' became just the third player in school history to record over 1,000 yards receiving in a single-season and the first Aggie player to go over 1,000 yards receiving since 1995.

The NMSU 'A Club' is a unique organization of former Aggie athletes, cheerleaders and coaches, who are committed to supporting and promoting the Aggie Athletic program to achieve a high level of success against WAC and Division I competition. For more information, please contact Bump Elliott at bump@nmsu.edu.

The New Mexico State Athletics Department together with First Community Bank announced that former basketball stand-out Eric Channing, women's golf great Alena Sharp and longtime benefactors Kevin McGrath and Lou Sisbarro were inducted into the First Community Bank/ NMSU Athletics Hall of Fame as the class of 2008.

The ceremony took place at halftime of the men's basketball game, March 8 against Hawai'i. The NMSU Hall of Fame, which is located in the newly renovated Pan American Center, honors outstanding student-athletes, coaches, teams and benefactors from Aggie past.

A 2002 NMSU honors graduate, Eric Channing ranks as one of the best all-around shooters in the history of the New Mexico State men's basketball program and was recently selected to the 2007 All-Century team, presented by Western Refining.

Channing, a multiple NMSU record holder, owns the all-time scoring record with 1,862 points, along with the career free throw percentage record at 84.9 percent. He also ranks first in 3-point field goals made (283) and attempted (627) for a career and the most minutes played (3,783) and most games played (124).

As a senior, Channing was named the 2002 Sun Belt Conference Male Athlete of the Year, after averaging 16.2 points per game while shooting 45.8-percent from the field. He also led the squad in 3-point percentage (.460) and free throw percentage (.894).

Channing was a three-time Verizon Academic All-American in 2000-02. He is the only male Aggie to be named an academic all-America three times.

In 2001 and 2002, Channing was named to the Sun Belt Conference Commissioner's Academic List and the GTE Academic All-District VI.

In 1999, Channing earned a spot on the Big West All-Freshman Team and was also a four-time NMSU Academic Wall of Honor recipient.

Alena Sharp is currently in her third year on the LPGA and continues to improve at the professional level. She has played in 23 tournaments this season and has earned $222,258.00 which is 57th on the money list.

She marked a career-high seventh-place finish at the Hana Bank - KOLON Championship, Oct. 21. Her other top 10 finish of the season was at the CN Canadians Women's Open, Aug. 19.

Currently, Sharp has earned $320,680 in her career.

In her second season on the LPGA Tour, Sharp recorded a then career-best tie for 17th at the Michelob Ultra Open at Kingsmill in 2006. She also recorded a career-low 67 during the third round of the State Farm Classic, where she tied for 19th place.

Throughout 2006, Sharp tallied four eagles and 199 birdies, ranking 31st and 67th on the LPGA list, respectively. She also hit 20-of-64 rounds under par and had a driving accuracy of 65.3-percent.

In 2005, Sharp joined an elite list of former Aggies as she fired a 2-over-par 362 at the 2005 LPGA Tour Qualifying School in Daytona Beach, Fla. She earned a tour card for the 2006 LPGA Tour season and tied for 16th at the five-round tournament.

She saved her best score for last as she carded a 3-under-par 69 in her final 18 holes to secure one of the 24 exempt spots up for grabs. It was Sharp's only round under par of the tournament after shooting 74, 72, 75, 72 over the first 72 holes of the school.

Sharp graduated from New Mexico State University in 2003, turned professional and joined the FUTURES Tour in 2004. In two full seasons on tour, Sharp has recorded four top 10 finishes and earned $26,729 in winnings.

In 2005, Sharp played in 16 events and made every cut. She placed in the top 10 three times and ranked 12th on the tour money list with $22,615. She also ranked ninth on the tour in scoring average at 72.02 strokes per round. Sharp's best finish on tour came in 2005 as she finished in second at the Quality Concepts Kankakee Golf Classic with a 3-under-par 213.

In Sharp's first year on the LPGA, she has played in 15 events in 2006. She made six cuts and earned $62,504.

A standout amateur in Canada, Sharp was a two-time winner of the Ontario Junior Championship (1997-98) and captured the 1999 Ontario Ladies Championship, as well as the 1999 Canadian Junior Championship. She was also a winner of the Toronto Star Amateur Championship in 2000 and 2003.

At New Mexico State University, Sharp won the 2000 Big West Conference Championship, 2002 NMSU Invitational and the 2002 and 2003 Sun Belt Conference Championship. She was Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year and an NCAA all-American first-team selection in 2003.

Aggies

As a young nation met its destiny toward the west, a nation affirmed its northern borders along a great river, and others, centuries old, lived with great pride and love for their land. Brave men and women cultivated their lands to feed their families and for their communities, despite the unforgiving setting of the desert southwest. Their actions perfected their abilities to nurture a means of sustenance, making them masters of agriculture, and thus, AGGIES.

Pete

What would a great institution be without a signature icon--a symbol that represents its heritage and dedication to live, learn and thrive. A symbol that after a hard day's work, can have a great time, get a little crazy and rowdy but still remember that there's much work to be done the next day.

New Mexico State has had it's fair share of, well, we won't call them icons. One, was a combination of Zoro and Speedy Gonzales; another somewhat reminiscent of the Man in the Big Yellow Hat from Curious George.

Then the students at New Mexico State University heard a tale of one such icon. In 1868, an eight-year-old boy worked the fields with his father, when a band of former Confederate vigilantes viciously robbed and killed the. A family friend then taught him to handle a gun and told the young man, "My boy, may an old man's curse rest upon you, if you do not try to avenge your father."

At the age of 15, he headed to Fort Gibson in the Indian Territory to see what more the U.S. Cavalry soldiers could teach him. Much to everyone's surprise, he wound up doing the teaching, out-shooting everyone with the speed of lightning using his Colt forty-five. The Young Frank Eaton was awarded a medal by the commanding officer for his excellent marksmanship and a new nickname, Pistol Pete.

By the time he was in his early thirties, he had found the men that robbed him of his father and his wild-west adventures led him to be more than a cowboy, scout, Indian fighter, trail rider and Deputy U.S. Marshall--it made him a legend.

• Fight Song •

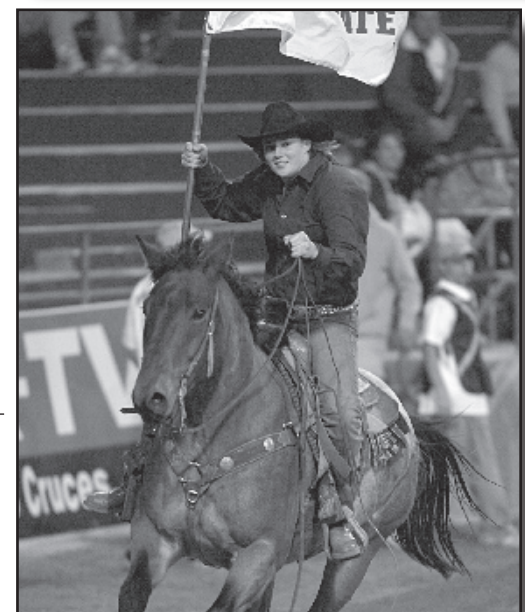

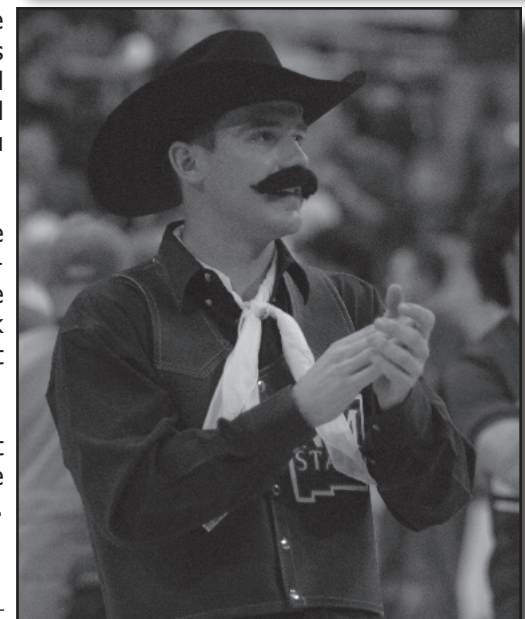

Aggies, Oh Aggies!
The hills send back the cry,
We're here to do or die!
Aggies, Oh Aggies!
We'll win this game or know the reason why!

And when we win this game,
We'll buy a keg of booze,
And we'll drink it to the Aggies 'till we wobble in our shoes!

A---G---G---I---E---S--!
AGGIES! AGGIES!
GO AGGIES!

• Alma Mater •

Our Alma Mater, now to thee,
We lift our voice of praise,
We love thy walls, we love thy halls,
And all thy pleasant ways.
We love thy wisdom and thy strength,

Thy truth which makes men free.
Thine, Thine we are in peace or war,
Our own N.M.A.C.

Led by the banner's crimson folds,
We'll march the upward way.
As heroes of the common life
Thy sons would serve their day.
Through toil and triumph, peace and pain
With patience taught by thee,
We'll fight our fight beneath thy flag,
Our own N.M.A.C.

With hope and courage, faith and joy,
We face the future bright;
Thy ringing call is in our ears,
Thy strong hand gives us might.
As thy brave sons have ever done,
So in the years to be,
We'll guard they honor with our lives,
Our own N.M.A.C.

Crimson & White

One of the most basic symbols that triggers emotion, pride and a sense of identity is color, and when you're an Aggie, those colors are Crimson and White.

Crimson is one of the most emotionally-stimulating of all of the colors in the spectrum. It has the widest depth of symbolism ranging from passion to anger. Crimson represents power, vigor, strength, leadership and strength.

White, to many represents Purity, Innocence, Prestige and Good. White, in many cultures is also suggestive of the springtime and summer, the seasons when crops are planted--a key aspect of this university as it deals with agriculture. And in the education setting, white represents new beginnings.

The 'A'

One of NMSU's most cherished traditions is that of the "A". For generations, the "A" has been emblazoned on many items, buildings and landmarks boldly signifying Aggie pride.

The most popular and visible "A's" is a yearly State tradition--the painting of the "A" on Tortugas Mountain east of campus. The "A" stands 330 ft tall, roughly the size of a football field.

Even more interesting, is the story about how the "A" got on the mountain. In the university's early years, students from the Colleges of Agriculture & Home Economics and Engineering would gather on around April Fool's Day to construct a large "A" somewhere on campus that sorely stood out to the administration.

One year, the student's realized that only one building had not been conquered--the administration building at the apex of the Horseshoe, the original Hadley Hall. It's steep architecture and intimidating dome proved to be too difficult to construct an "A" on, one would even say impossible.

The relentless bunch used their fine education from State to map out the symbolic letter at a point on Tortugas Mountain, where if one stood at the base of the Horseshoe, it would appear that an "A" was standing atop the dome. Much to the surprise of the administration, their arrival at work the morning of April 1, reflected that the crafty Aggies had managed to accomplish the impossible.

The Pride Marching Band

The "PRIDE" of New Mexico is the marching band at New Mexico State University. It is composed of approximately 250 of the finest musicians, dancers, and auxiliary in the nation. The purpose of the "PRIDE" is to provide entertainment at football games, parades, and almost any NMSU event. The "PRIDE" hosts a major marching band competition in the fall. High school bands come from all parts of the Southwest to compete in the Tournament of Bands. The competition lasts all day, with a final competition at night. The "PRIDE" performs two exhibition performances at the Tournament of Bands. The members and staff of the "PRIDE" make it their goal to be the best marching band in the nation. The "PRIDE" is not just an ensemble, it is a family whose ties last forever.

Cheerleaders

The NMSU Cheerleaders have two spirit squads, a co-ed squad and an all-female squad. The squads begin their preparation each year before school officially begins in the fall. They attend a Universal Cheerleading Camp and begin practices in preparation for the football season. In the Fall both squads cheer at the NMSU football games. During the basketball season, the co-ed squad cheers at men's basketball games and the all-female squad cheers at women's basketball games. In addition, the NMSU Cheerleaders are asked to make many public appearances throughout the year at other athletic events, as well as University and community events. The Cheerleaders dedicate many hours of their time to practice, games and public appearances each year to represent NMSU.

Victory Bell

In the 1940s, the Victory Bell, a gift of the Class of 1939, was housed in an open-sided structure on the Horseshoe and rung to announce Aggie victories. In 1972, the bell was rededicated as the NMSU Engineer's Bell and now sits on a platform near Goddard Hall. On game days, various school organizations take turns toting the ringing bell around Las Cruces prior to kick-off. The Bell then sits at Aggie Memorial Stadium waiting to give off a triumphant chime.

Conference Affiliation

New Mexico State is in its fourth season as a member of the Western Athletic Conference (WAC). The Western Athletic Conference is the fifth conference NMSU has been affiliated with in its football history. New Mexico State spent the previous six seasons as a member of the Sun Belt Conference. Prior to that, NMSU was a member of the Big West Conference (called the Pacific Coast Conference until 1988), Missouri Valley Conference and the Border Conference.
